BREACH WIDENS IN

Compromise Effected in Case of Appointment of Dr. E. S. Newton.

BOARD DIVIDED INTO TWO CONTENDING FACTIONS

Question Dealing With District's Colored Cadets Still Undecided After Warm Debate.

Washington's hoard of education split again yesterday afternoon, when Dr. E. S. Newton, teacher of Western High School, was nominated by Supt. Ernest L. Thurston to succeed Miss Edith C. Westcott as principal of that school. After a committee, comprising Ernest H. McDaniel, William T. Galliher, Mrs. in executive session for more than two the superintendent's recommendation was appointed to serve as principal for a period not extending beyond June most serious one is not doubted by those closely in touch with the school system. So far harmony has outwardly been preserved, but it is believed that the rupture will soon become open. The break started last spring over the case of Dr. Lucy Moten, principal of the Colored Normal School, whose dismissal was recommended by Assistant Supt. Bruce, in charge of the colored schools.

Board Divided Into Two Groups.

The board is at present divided into two groups, the one consisting of Henry P. Blair, president; William T. Galcomprising Ernest H. Daniel, vice pres-Rhodes Mrs. Kern, Mrs. Cook and Mr.

In addition to the deadlock over the In addition to the deadlock over the case of Dr. Newton's appointment yesterday the board also had a debate over the, propsal to allow High School Cadets to act in the information booths at the Union station during the Grand Army encampment. Dr. Childs asked if colored cadets were to be given an opportunity to engage in some of this service. Mr. Blair explained that the request of the committee in charge of the G. A. R. had been specifically for white cadets. The six members prewhite cadets. The six members pre-viously named as one side appeared unanimous in the belief that some proision should be made for the colored sanctioned by the board was proposed by Emory Wilson, principal of Central Aigh. Briefly, it empowers the athletic association of that school to act as an exchange for second-hand books, with a scale of prices at which the books are to be bought and sold. Any profits which may accrate through the exchange are to go to the athletic fund of the school.
